

Oodles of hamburgers

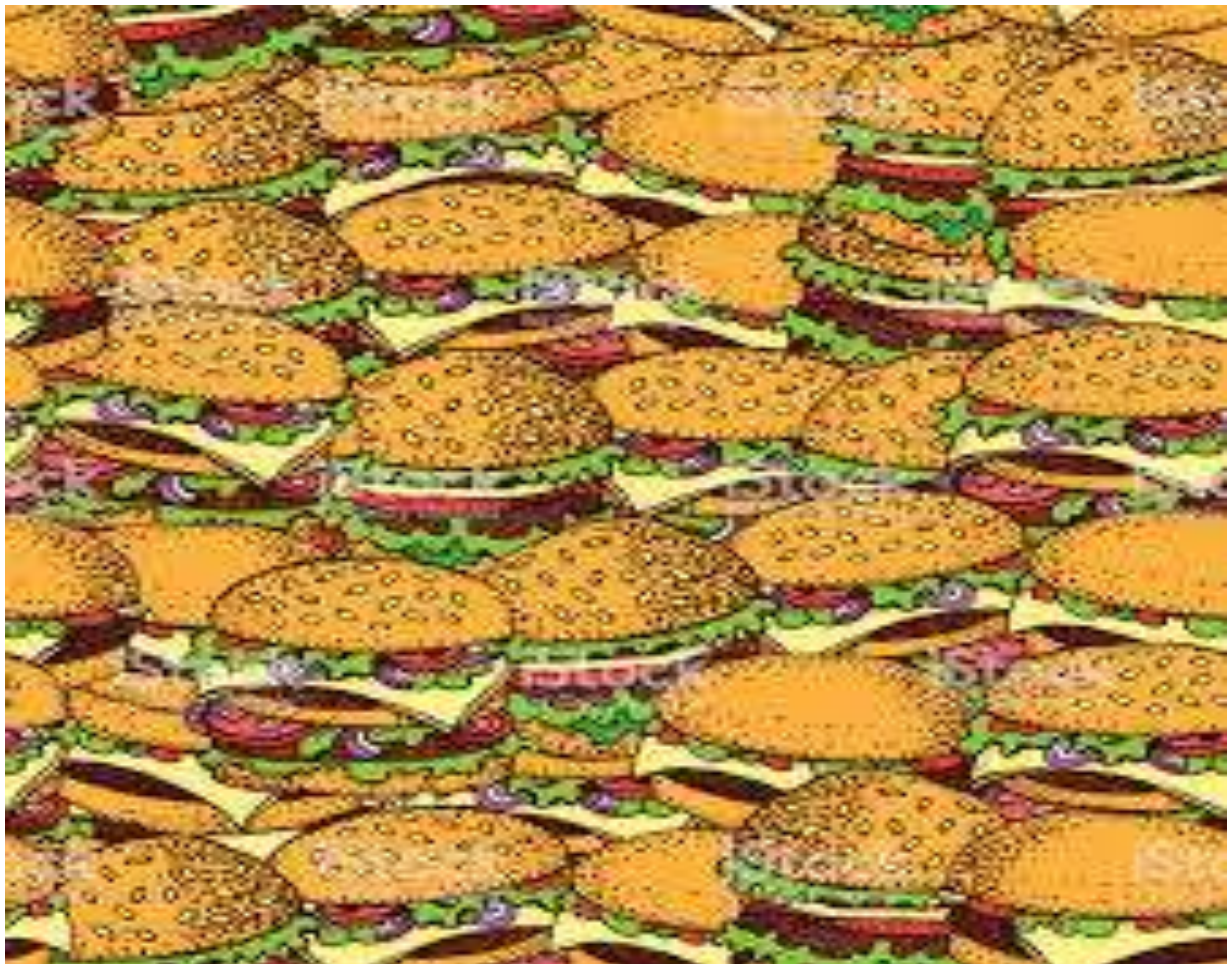

Once upon a time there was a restaurant called ABC. Next to it there was another burger restaurant called XYZ.

XYZ was quicker at making burgers so ABC got a machine that was very fast at making burgers.

The machine was working great...Suddenly it started going CRAZY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! And in just a few minutes the burgers were all over the town!!!

What could ABC do? Then they thought: “WE SHOULD SAY THE MAGIC WORD” . Then all together said loudly: “KETCHUP”. The machine stopped!! Then ABC got their magic burger vacuum and cleaned all the burgers from all over the town!!! And they lived happily ever after.😊😊😊
