YEAR 6

Once upon a time there was a pizza cooker. He had got a lot of orders to cook and he wished to had two robots, to help him.

His wish became true!!! The robots started cooking pizza without stopping. They cooked more than one hundred pizzas.

After a lot of time the robots made so much pizza that the cooker had nowhere to put the pizzas. He said that he wanted to stop the robots.

I know...

PIZZA OF OODLES!

Then, the robots stopped cooking.
